

The 55th Venice Biennale
‘You (you).’

Curatorial statement	The exhibition ‘You (you).’ featuring the works of local artist Lee Kit, is under the curatorship of Dr. Lars Nittve and Yung Ma. The exhibition will present a series of new commissions, including sound, video and performance works, ready-made objects. “You (you).” has been conceived through the recollection of personal and collective moments to reflect on the construction of memory, time and place. The exhibition is a continuation of Lee’s investigation into the ambiguous territory between the private and public. Lee’s employment of repetitive gestures, mundane objects and other intangible materials subtly recall the qualities of the everyday.
